

BOEM ADMINISTRATIVE DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY

BOEMM 218.1-H.2

Page 1 of 1

| 2. DIRECTIVES                                            | DOI | Dir. (D)/DeputyDir. (DD) | Associate Directors;Office Directors;Regional Directors | OTHERS                                                                                                                  |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------|------------|-------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| A. SUBSTANTIVE REVISIONS                                        |            |                                           |                                                                          |                                                                                                                                |
| 1. Directives pertaining to delegations of authority            |            |                                           |                                                                          |                                                                                                                                |
| a. Office of Primary Responsibility (OPR) is BOEM               |            | DD - A <sup>1</sup>                       |                                                                          |                                                                                                                                |
| b. OPR is Bureau of Safety and Environmental Enforcement (BSEE) |            | DD - A <sup>1</sup>                       |                                                                          | BSEE Deputy Associate Director,Management Services Division - CBSEE Associate Director forAdministration (ADA) - C |
| 2. Directives other than delegations of authority               |            |                                           |                                                                          |                                                                                                                                |
| a. OPR is BOEM                                                  |            | DD - A <sup>1</sup>                       |                                                                          |                                                                                                                                |
| b. OPR is BSEE                                                  |            | DD - A <sup>1</sup>                       |                                                                          | BSEE Assistant Associate Director forAdministration - C <sup>2</sup>BSEE ADA - C                                       |
| B. NON-SUBSTANTIVE REVISIONS                                    |            |                                           |                                                                          | Directives Program Manager - A <sup>3</sup>                                                                                    |

A = Approve C = Concur

<sup>1</sup>This authority cannot be redelegated. <sup>2</sup>BSEE Deputy Associate Director, Management Services Division, concurs for directives pertaining to organization changes. <sup>3</sup>Editorial changes that do not have any effect on bureau policy, procedures, concepts, or processes may be approved by the Directives Program Manager.

02/18/2025 Version 003

Replaces 04/09/2024 Version 002